

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Thomas E. Jordan,
Appellant,

v.

Cheryl A. Jordan,
Appellee.

Supreme Court No. S-17490

Order

Motion for Stay Pending Appeal

Date of Order: 3/9/2020

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-17-11213CI

Appellant Thomas E. Jordan's Motion for Stay Pending Appeal is GRANTED IN PART. Appellant argues, among other things, that the superior court impermissibly divided Appellant's VA disability benefits, contrary to federal and state law - an issue to be decided on the merits in this appeal. For purposes of this motion only, it appears there is a substantial likelihood Appellant will succeed on the merits on this issue. The amount of Appellant's VA disability benefits awarded to Appellee, Cheryl A. Jordan is $182,782 (rounded up). IT IS ORDERED that the superior court's award of this amount is STAYED pending decision on appeal by the supreme court. Appellant's other grounds for stay are DENIED.
